

Center's New Thrifty Drug Opens Thursday

Truckloads of merchandise are arriving daily at the 174th and Hawthorne Blvd. Thrifty Drug Store which will open next Thursday, June 6, according to an announcement by store manager, Jack Mertz.

"Our buyers have gone throughout the country buying merchandise which will make this Thrifty Drug Store Grand Opening Sale one of the biggest in history," Mertz said. "Stock of the new store is actually the stock of three stores in one, with the vast selection of a super self-service drug store combined with the most popular department and variety store items.

"We will have entertainment which will make the Thrifty opening a festive occasion in true Hollywood traditions, with such star attractions as Peter Potter, Bob Crosby's Bobcats, Molly Bee, and dozens of other headliners.

"Mark the date on your calendar and be sure to attend the biggest Grand Opening Sale and Celebration in history at the 174th and Hawthorne Blvd. Thrifty Drug Store, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday," Mertz concluded.

Obituaries

Mary Agnes Moore
Final rites for Mary Agnes Moore, 88, 908 Cranbrook Ave., were held yesterday in the Church of the Nativity, with the Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiating. She died Monday.

A native of Chicago, Ill., she lived here for six years. Rosary was recited Tuesday in Stone and Myers Chapel. Members of the Optimist Club acted as pallbearers.

Survivors include a son, John, 908 Cranbrook; brother, William O'Grady, Long Beach; and two sisters, Mrs. John Lewis and Kate O'Grady, both of Chicago.

Robert P. Nickerson
Services were held yesterday for Robert Payne Nickerson, 43, a resident of Torrance for the past 10 years, in Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. John L. Taylor officiating. He died Sunday.

A native of Portland, Me., he lived at 1326 W. Carson St. Burial was in Green Hills.

He is survived by his widow, Mildred; sons, Robert and Roland Nickerson; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Nickerson, Hollywood; and sister, Madeline Ramsey, Torrance.

Moses Alfred Kerr
Funeral services for Moses Alfred Kerr, 88, father of Andy L. Kerr, 1446 W. 214th St., will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday, in Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. David V. Abbott. He died Monday in Hondo.

A native of Lincoln, Neb., he had lived in Long Beach for 16 years. Burial will be in Green Hills.

Mr. Kerr also is survived by another son, Alfred; daughter, Myrtle Patrick; 18 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Charles Lockwood
Funeral services for Mrs. Charles N. Lockwood, 515 S. Irena St., Redondo Beach, who passed away early Monday morning, will be held in the White & Day Colonial Chapel, 901 Torrance Blvd., Redondo Beach, Saturday morning, 10:30.

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, Torrance, will officiate. Nursery facilities of the church will be available during the services. Until her recent illness the Lockwood family was active in many phases of the church activities.

White School Banquet Set

The first Father-Son Banquet at Steven White Junior High School will be held tomorrow night at 6:45 p.m., with Frank Kelleher, former Big League player, as special speaker.

Athletic awards will be presented to boys who were on the track team and participated in after-school sports by Pete Zamperini and William Sloan, coaches from Gardena and Banning High Schools. About 300 persons are expected to attend the banquet, where games will be played and movies shown.

Catalina Airlines Using Torrance Airport Again

Catalina Airlines has opened new DC-3 passenger service from Los Angeles International Airport to Santa Catalina Island, with return flights to Torrance, supplementing regular service established in 1955 and using the 12-passenger DeHavilland Doves.

Announcement of the new scheduled flights, first to land on the island airport, was made during a week end run to Las Vegas. Catalina Airlines President Donald McBain, veteran of 17 years as pilot with United Air Lines, flew a group of airline officials and guests to the desert city to check out the recently acquired DC-3.

Accompanying McBain on George Irwin, vice president of Catalina, and Howard Hoegsted, vice president, City Manager Robert W. Peterson of Special evening and week end flights are planned during the summer.

Persons taking the steamer to Catalina can fly back to Torrance airport where shuttle service will return them to their cars in Wilmington, McBain announced.
